

Art.-No.: 66990 Silverfish-Repellent

For keeping silverfish away

Wherever it is warm and humid, small silverfish can be found, scuttling across the ground. They are not harmful, but nobody wants them in their own home. Silverfish like dark and damp areas e.g. bathrooms, basements or even bedrooms. Killing a single silverfish is useless as their nests are usually hidden in crevices. A lasting solution is needed. For this purpose the Gardigo Silverfish-Repellent emits an ultrasonic signal, which silverfish find most unpleasant and disturbing. Quieter places
