

Tripod + Ball Head

Collapsible Aluminum Design | 1/4-20 Ball Head Versatility

This ultra-versatile tripod is designed to give you a solid camera platform on any surface from perfectly flat to jagged and rocky. Its legs can be locked at an angle, extended, laid flat and adjusted to help you get the perfect shot—even in sand or water. It features a ball head that rotates a full 360° and tilts up to 90° to help you lock in the best camera angle. You can also attach a compatible 1/4-20 extension pole to set up invisible pole shots with a 360 camera.

What's Included

- Tripod
- Ball Head

Compatibility

- Any camera with 1/4-20 mounting threads
- Extension poles with 1/4-20 mounting threads
- Tripod adapters

Features + Benefits

- 2-section telescoping legs can be extended independently up to 9in (20cm), locked in at an angle or laid flat depending on the terrain
- Collapses down to 6in (15cm), making it handy for everyday use and to take anywhere
- Legs collapse and completely close so you can use the tripod as a small hand grip
- Thumb lever adjuster is strong enough to lock your camera in place and prevent it from slipping while letting you make precise adjustments on the fly
- Rubberized camera platform keeps your camera in place after you've set it in the position you want

Features + Benefits

- Ball head rotates 360° and tilts up to 90°, allowing you to change your camera angle without adjusting your mounting setup
- Attach a compatible 1/4-20 extension pole (either to the ball head or to the base with the ball head removed) to capture invisible pole shots with a 360 camera
- Crafted from durable aluminum, waterproof and specially designed to lock out sand that can damage moving parts
